What it means to be a Gigabit Society

Brad Moline
ALLO Communications CEO
The ALLO Network
Supported by 700 teammates

Colorado
- Breckenridge
- Fort Morgan
- Greeley
- Hudson

Nebraska
- Alliance
- Bridgeport
- Columbus
- Fremont
- Gering
- Hastings
- Imperial
- Lincoln
- Norfolk
- Ogallala
- Scottsbluff
- Valentine
- Wayne
- North Platte
Lincoln Gig City

- Awarded in 2018 by the National Science Foundation
- 300 miles of city-owned conduit
- 3.5 year ubiquitous build - 285,000 population
ALLO, Nelnet & Hudl

- 4,000 Lincoln employees
- Transitioned from office to home in 96 hours
Core Value - Local

- Summer Concert Series

- Emergency Broadband Benefit Program/Digital Divide

- Nonprofits: Free GIG service to 80+ organizations
Rural Nebraska Health Network

- Health network connecting rural communities
- ALLO - anchor tenant
- Developed fiber in eight rural Nebraska communities
Construction: Building a Fiber Network

- City collaboration
- Safety focus
- Connected communities
ALLO Today

Customers
- 100,000
- Installing 700+ per week
- Business
- Residential
- Governmental

Teammates
- 700
- 15% turnover
- 68 Net Promotor Score

Gigabit Society
- Cities & Residents
- Schools & Students
- Hospitals & Patients

Let’s bring fiber to your community!
Thank you.
Questions / Comments